

April Taylor Invited To The Pentagon In April

At the request of the Department of Defense, Plateau Music recording artist April Taylor traveled to Washington DC last week to attend a series of meetings at the Pentagon with representatives from the DOD, the USO and other military organizations. The DOD contacted Taylor's label to enlist her participation in a series of events to create awareness for America Supports You, a program that benefits our military men and women.

Projects already in the works include a summer concert in the nation's capitol as well as live and taped broadcasts via the Pentagon Channel.

Pictured (l - r) April Taylor; Allison Barber, Deputy Assistant Secretary of Defense for Public Affairs, Department of Defense

ALLABOUTCOUNTRY.com

April 12, 2006